1104	Main Document Page count: 2 Order	Aug 14th 2020	Order	Court Order	ORDER: Certain Does have contacted the Court to request additional time to comment on the disclosure of sealed materials from Giuffre v. Maxwell, No. 15 Civ. 7433, to Alan Dershowitz, Defendant in Giuffre v. Dershowitz, No. 19 Civ. 3377, as discussed in the Court's Order dated August 4, 2020 [dkt. no. 154]. Accordingly, the Does shall submit comments about the proposed disclosure to the Court's email address at PreskaNYSDCchambers@nysd.uscourts.gov by no later than August 25, 2020. No further extensions will be granted. SO ORDERED. (Signed by Judge Loretta A. Preska on 8/14/2020) (va) (Entered: 08/14/2020)	1	2	2 minutes	2 days	1789 days
1103	Main Document Page count: 2 Order	Aug 12th 2020	Order	Court Order	ORDER: The Court has reviewed the parties' letters dated August 10 and August 11, 2020. (See dkt. nos. 1099-1101.) The Court writes specifically to address Defendant Ghislaine Maxwell's request for a three-week stay of the unsealing process due to the availability of "critical new information" related both to this action and to the pending criminal case against her, U.S. v. Maxwell, No. 20 Cr. 330 (AJN). (See dkt. no. 1100 at 1-2.) Ms. Maxwell's request is denied. Given that Ms. Maxwell is not at liberty to disclose this new information because it is subject to the protective order in the criminal action, (id. at 1), the Court has no reasonable basis to impose a stay. And, as Ms. Maxwell knows, her ipse dixit does not provide compelling grounds for relief. Should the protective order in the criminal action be modified to permit disclosure of the relevant information to the Court, Ms. Maxwell may renew her request for a stay of the unsealing process. 1097	Main Document Page count: 6 Order	Aug 4th 2020	Order	Court Order	ORDER: Accordingly, by posting this order both in Giuffre v. Maxwell, No. 15 Civ. 7433, and Giuffre v. Dershowitz, No. 19 Civ. 3377, the Court invites the Does to comment on the proposed disclosure. Any Doe who wishes to be heard on the disclosure proposed by counsel in Giuffre v. Dershowitz shall inform the Court of his/her views no later than August 18, 2020. Because those comments may discuss information that is currently under seal in Giuffre v. Maxwell, they will be submitted directly to the Court so that the Court can review them in camera. Comments may be sent to the Court's email address at PreskaNYSDCChambers@nysd.uscourts.gov. The Court specifically requests comment from counsel for John Doe who has appeared in Maxwell. The Court will, at the least, inform the parties generally of the nature of any comments received. Relatedly, the parties request that the Court clarify that deposition transcripts and other documents not designated confidential on their face (excerpts of some of which were submitted under seal as part of the (now unsealed) summary judgment record in Maxwell, see infra n. 1) are not subject to the Maxwell Protective Order (dkt. no. 62 in 15 Civ. 7433) and thus may be freely disclosed and produced to Defendant without any restrictions on their use or disclosure. The Court agrees that materials not designated confidential are not covered by the Maxwell Protective Order but disagrees that there is necessarily no restriction on their disclosure. Specifically, certain materials may both (1) lack confidentiality designations made pursuant to the Protective Order and (2) be filed under seal in the Maxwell litigation. To the extent that the materials mention non-parties to the Maxwell action and remain under seal, such materials should not be disclosed before the non-parties mentioned are given notice and an opportunity to comment on the disclosure. (See supra at 2.) However, where such materials have already been unsealed--either by this Court or by the Court of Appeals--they may be freely disclosed. SO ORDERED. (Signed by Judge Loretta A. Notwithstanding the stay, the parties shall confer and report to the Court by letter no later than August 10, 2020, (1) their suggestions for streamlining the unsealing process, as discussed by the Court at the July 23 hearing, and (2) their proposed next set of docket entries to be reviewed for potential unsealing. Defendant-Appellant Ghislaine Maxwell moves for a stay pending appeal of the district court's order of July 23, 2020, unsealing deposition materials and the order of July 29, 2020, denying her motion to reconsider the July 23 order. In the alternative, she requests a temporary administrative stay pending full consideration of the motion for a stay pending appeal. She also requests leave to file under seal the unredacted copy of Exhibit 7 to her stay motion. It is hereby ORDERED that the motion for a stay pending appeal is GRANTED. The stay will remain in effect until further order of this Court. The motion for leave to file the exhibit under seal is GRANTED pending review of the matter and without prejudice to reconsideration nostra sponte. It is further ORDERED that the appeal is expedited. Appellant's principal brief must be filed on or before August 20, 2020; Appellee's and Intervenor's briefs must be filed on or before September 9, 2020; and a reply brief, if any, must be filed on or before September 15, 2020. 1053	Main Document Page count: 2 Order	May 1st 2020	Order	Court Order	ORDER: The Court has reviewed the parties' joint letter seeking clarification of the review protocol. (See dkt. no. 1052.) Defendant's position accurately interprets the protocol, i.e., the Court will only review Docket Entries 143, 164, 172, 199, and 230 with respect to Does 1 and 2, meaning only Does 1 and 2 will be notified in the first instance. However, the Court acknowledges the practical difficulties with this process as explained by Plaintiff in her submission, (dkt. no. 1052 at 2), and is thus amenable to unsealing portions of documents mentioning non-parties rather than waiting to unseal the entirety of a given document until all non-parties have provided input. This will hopefully allow the materials to be unsealed on a rolling basis and at a rate somewhat coextensive with that of the review process. Moreover, as the Court noted in a previous order, this process is a "cooperative effort between the Court and the parties." (See dkt. no. 1047 at 1 n.1.) Should the current process prove unworkable or inefficient, the Court is happy to revisit the review protocol with the parties' input. SO ORDERED. (Signed by Judge Loretta A. 1044	Main Document Page count: 13 Order	Mar 31st 2020	Order	Court Order	ORDER AND PROTOCOL FOR UNSEALING DECIDED MOTIONS: The Court previously ruled that "only motions actually decided by Judge Sweet along with documents relevant to Judge Sweet's decisions on those motions are properly considered judicial documents to which a presumption of public access attaches." Order, dated Dec. 16, 2019 (DE 1016). Such materials are referred to herein as the "Sealed Materials" or "Sealed Items." The Sealed Materials will be enumerated in a List of Decided Motions designated by the Court. In accordance with Brown v. Maxwell, 929 F.3d 41, 49-51 (2d Cir. 2019), the Court will conduct an individualized review of each Sealed Item in the List of Decided Motions to determine (a) the weight of presumption of public access that should be afforded to the document, (b) the identification and weight of any countervailing interests supporting continued sealing/redaction, and (c) whether the countervailing interests rebut the presumption of public access. To assist in this process and afford persons identified or otherwise interested in the Sealed Materials the opportunity to participate in the Court's individualized review, the Court adopts the following protocol. (As further set forth herein this Order.) SO ORDERED. (Signed by Judge Loretta A. Preska on 3/31/2020) (va) (Entered: 03/31/2020)	1	13	53 minutes	N/A	1653 days

968	Main Document Page count: 25 USCA Order Attachment 1 Page count: 1 POOLER, Circuit Judge, dissenting in part	Jul 3rd 2019	Order	Court Order	OPINION of USCA (Certified) as to 504 Notice of Appeal filed by Alan M. Dershowitz, 920 Notice of Appeal, filed by Michael Cernovich d/b/a Cernovich Media, 955 Notice of Appeal, filed by Julie Brown, Miami Herald Media Company, 915 Notice of Interlocutory Appeal filed by Alan M. Dershowitz USCA Case Number 18-2868-cv; 16-3945-cv(L), 17-1625(con); 17-1722(con). Intervenors-Appellants Alan Dershowitz, Michael Cernovich, and the Miami Herald Company (with reporter Julie Brown) appeal from certain orders of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (Robert W. Sweet, Judge) denying their respective motions to unseal filings in a defamation suit. We conclude that the District Court failed to conduct the requisite particularized review when ordering the sealing of the materials at issue. At the same time, we recognize the potential damage to privacy and reputation that may accompany public disclosure of hard-fought, sensitive litigation. We therefore clarify the legal tools that district courts should use in safeguarding the integrity of their dockets. Accordingly, we VACATE the District Court's orders entered on November 2, 2016, May 3, 2017, and August 27, 2018, ORDER the unsealing of the summary judgment record as described further herein, and REMAND the cause to the District Court for particularized review of the remaining sealed materials. Judge Pooler concurs in this opinion except insofar as it orders the immediate unsealing of the summary judgment record without a remand. Catherine O'Hagan Wolfe, Clerk USCA for the Second Circuit.
